

BP114

CONSULTANTS

Administrative and supervisory personnel may be authorized by the superintendent to make consulting or speaking engagements of a professional nature outside the school system, provided that such commitments do not adversely affect the performance of system assignments. Personnel may accept honoraria in connection with these authorized out-of-system activities.