

MILITARY LEAVE

Employees who are members of any reserve component of the Armed Forces of the United States will be granted leave of absence for all periods of military service during which they are engaged in the performance of duty or training in the service of the state or the United States. While performing such duty or training, the employee will be paid his/her regular salary up to a maximum of fifteen (15) days working days in any one (1) calendar year, plus such additional days as may result from any call to active state duty. An employee called to active duty by the governor to enforce the laws of the state will be paid his/her regular salary for such time as he/she is engaged in the performance of his/her duty, and any time spent in active state duty will not count against the fifteen-day period of leave allowed for military service.

The employee will supply a copy of the order for duty upon the request of the superintendent.
